By marion butler This is the third book in the Jackman and Evans series. In this book a new character joins them in the shape of D.S.Carter Maclean, The sole survivor of a plane crash in which his four best friends perished. He is haunted by their appearances to him and finds a coping mechanism by completing a task for each of them until they finally disappear. Alongside this are two other investigations for D.I.Jackman and D.S.Evans and the team to solve. The investigation into the disappearance of the wife of one of D.S. Macleans dead friends and the stalking and kidnap of Superintendant Ruth Crookes neice Leah. This is another great procedural from Joy Ellis! It could be read as a standalone though I would definately recommend reading the series in order as the characters develop throughout and add so much to the enjoyment of the series. This third book is full of twists and turns, characters that you can relate too and held my interest right up until the final and rather sad ending to the story of D.S.Maclean. I read this book over two days and cant wait for the next in the series as they just keep getting better and better. Thanks to Joffe books for the opportunity to read this as an arc. A definat 5* from me. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A "WOW" BOOK!! By Amazon Customer This book was AWESOME!!
